mikeloveofficial It was an honor, a privilege, and very humbling to have been celebrated by my dear friends and peers at the Pacific Pioneer Broadcast event last Friday. I have no words to describe how emotionally impactful this experience was for me. To have the love and support of so many in the room is beyond a humbling experience. I want to say thank you to everyone who attended and especially to my friends, who as members of the dais shared stories of friendship and love. I will live everyday my level best to live up to your kind words. I would also like to say thank you to Shotgun Tom Kelly for all you have done for musicians everywhere.

Honoree MIKE LOVE posted this heartfelt "thank you" on Facebook.

Both MIKE LOVE and FRITZ COLEMAN signed autographs after their PPB tributes.

It turns out that the best place to help them from is Heaven, a place Jim doesn't believe exists, until he finds himself right in the middle of it.

Longtime PPB member redefines 'Pioneer' in finale inspired by Kellyann Chippendale

The meaning of "Pioneer Broadcaster" certainly applied to DAVID SHEEHAN back in 1971 when he became one of the first entertainment reporters on an evening newscast in TV history on KNXT (now KCBS).

Nearly 50 years later, David has another "first" as an independent producer having two major productions streaming simultaneously on Amazon Prime Video.

One is the restored and remastered version of his collaboration with BOB FOSSE to re-stage Pippin, Fosse's 2-hour Tony Award Winning musical encapsulating the question: "What should I do with my life?"

The second is And The Winners Are!, Sheehan's newest 90-minute trip through his interviews with 33 Oscar winners. The show was motivated by co-creator, executive producer, and award-winning filmmaker KELLYANN CHIPPENDALE. "Her idea to utilize our library of unseen footage about the humanity of Hollywood was gold," says Sheehan, "listening to what is real and from the heart. It's my best ever," Sheehan adds, "the show has turned into a kind of bucket list gift to myself, to Hollywood history, and to all those who are sure to be inspired by it."
